THOMAS BROUGHT
LATER MAIL TODAY

TRANSPORT ARRIVED OFF PORT
LAST NIGHT—SAILS ON MONDAY
FOR GUAM AND MANILA.

The transport Thomas, Captain Lyman, arrived off port shortly after midnight last night from San Francisco with one day's later mail. The vessel sailed March 31 and is en route to Guam and Manila. The vessel brought no cabin passenger for Honolulu, which is rather an unusual occurrence. She has a large crowd of passengers for Manila but carries only three cabin passengers for Guam. In the steerage are 75 marines for Guam.

By far the most interesting organization aboard is the first battalion of Philippine Scouts. The organization went to St. Louis about a year ago to attend the exposition. The battalion attended the inauguration ceremonies at Washington, on March 4. They are now en route to the Philippines, 279 in number. Major W. H. Johnston is in command of the Scouts.

The third squadron Eighth Cavalry is also aboard under command of Major Charles G. Ayers. There are 57 casualties going to Manila and 16 casualties for Honolulu stopped.

Col. E. A. Garlington, Inspector general of the army, is a through passenger. He is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Congressman Charles W. Gillett of New York is a through passenger, accompanied by his wife.

Col. Henry Wygant, Twenty-second Infantry, is the ranking officer on the vessel and is in command of the troops. The Thomas sails at 11 a. m. Monday. She is loading 600 tons of coal.

THE SENATORS
ARE HARD AT WORK

KEEP STEADILY AT WORK AND
TRANSACT IMMENSE AMOUNT OF IMPORTANT BUSINESS.

At yesterday's session of the Senate the following business was transacted: The Miscellaneous Committee reported favorably on Senate Bill 86, the liveryman's lien bill. Laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

The Committee on Public Lands reported that Senate Bill 116, to prevent the changing of landmarks fills a long felt want, and recommended its passage. Report laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

The Public Lands Committee reported favorably on Senate Bill 112, providing for the protection of domestic animals. Report laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

From the Revision Committee Dickey reported correcting Senate Bill 101, providing that witnesses in criminal cases shall not be imprisoned. Report laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

At the request of the administration, Dowsett introduced the deficiency appropriation bill. Dickey introduced a bill amending the income tax. Both bills went to the Printing Committee.

Aldi introduced a bill increasing salaries of Circuit Judges. Read first time and referred to the Printing Committee.

The order of the day was the third reading of Senate Bill 114, regulating the drawing of juries, and on motion the bill went to the Revision Committee for correction.

Senate Bill 121, appropriating money for the Treasury department, went to the Ways and Means Committee.

House Bills 102, 108, were read and referred.

Senate Bill 119, to amend Section 1815 of the Revised Statutes, read first time and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Senate Bill 118, to provide for the sale of mortgaged stocks as shares, read first time and referred to the Ways and Means Committee.

Senate Bill 120, a departmental appropriation bill, read first time by title and put on the order of the day.

Senate Bill 86, relating to livery stock, was read third time and referred to the Revision Committee for correction.

Senate Bill 116, to fill a long felt want by preventing the malicious removal of landmarks, passed second reading. It will be read for the third time on Saturday.

Senate Bill 112, adding to the duties of the Board of Forestry the matter of the protection of domestic animals, was referred to the Revision Committee, because it was all mixed up.

Senate Bill 101, for perpetrating testimony and keeping witnesses out of jail, passed third reading without dissent.

Senate Bill 120, making appropriations for the departmental use of the government, a deficiency bill, passed second reading. It will be read for the third time tomorrow.

This closed the day's work, and the Senate took a recess until 2 p. m., at which time the tax bills will be taken up.

At the afternoon session of the Senate, McCandless introduced a bill to regulate insurance companies. Passed first reading.

Achil introduced a bill to create the Oahu jail. Passed first reading.

A communication from the House of the passage of House bill 75, relating to negotiable instrument, passed first reading.

Senate bill 56 was taken from the table and read for the second time. This is the bill relating to the appointment and removal of district magistrates. It passed and will be read for the third time on Saturday.

Senator Dowsett moved that Senate bills 52, 47, 98, 115 and 102 be recalled from the ways and means committee and put in the order of the day. This carried and then there was a long discussion as to which of the bills all taxation measures, should be taken up first.

On motion of Dickey, consideration of Bills 52 and 98 was deferred until Monday, and the Senate took up bill 102. This is the bill fixing the time and the manner of making assessments.

Work with this measure proceeded very smoothly until it came to the provision taxing ox carts $15. There was a sentiment in favor of cutting this down and President Isenberg called Paris to the chair and spoke in favor of the $15 tax. This did not save the tax, however the rate for ox carts was fixed at $2.

McCandless wanted to reduce the tax on automobiles from $20 to $10 and was greeted with numerous groans.

"Are you going to buy one?" asked Achil.

"I am not," said McCandless.

And then the Senate voted him down.

BALM WILL DO.
WHAT CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN

For the alleviation of pain Chamberlain's Pain Balm has no equal. Soreness of the muscles, swellings and lameness are quickly relieved by applying it. One application will promptly quiet a pain in the side or chest and nothing will compare with it as an external application for rheumatism. For the treatment of cuts and bruises there is nothing better. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

Really refreshing is Rahrer Beer. In all the world you will find no better remedy for that "spring feeling."
